

WINCHESTER, VIRGINIA HOLIDAY

December 14, 2010 – Tuesday

FULTON BANK – HERITAGE CLUB

Take some time off from your holiday preparations for a delightful trip to Virginia. Begin the day with a Belle Grove Manor House tour. This enlightening tour offers you an informative look at the rich history, Jeffersonian architecture, serene landscape and important collections of Belle Grove Plantation. The tour provides a superb overview of the Plantation and insight into the people who lived there and will be nicely decorated for the holidays.

Arrive at Historic Jordan Springs for a tour and delicious lunch. The history of Jordan Springs goes back to the early 1600's when the Catawba Indians discovered two mineral springs which flow from the grotto at the base of a nearby cliff-like hill. The property was later made into a resort centering around the therapeutic and healing medicinal powers of the springs. The current building was built in 1893 by Edwin Clarendon Jordan Jr. Jordan Springs boasts of a huge Christmas display including 75 decorated Christmas trees. A sight you won't want to miss! Your lunch will feature a duo of chicken and pork.

Winchester, Virginia is the final stop for this holiday tour. You will have free time to explore this charming town before departing for home.
